

PRIVACY POLICY

ELTForum collects conference participants' e-mail addresses for the purpose of communicating with participants for administrative purposes as related to the 2012 ELTForum Conference.

REGISTRATION CONFIRMATION

After filling in and submitting the on-line registration form for the 2012 ELTForum Conference, conference participants will receive confirmation and a summary of the information provided via email.

OTHER USES

- Participants' email addresses are used for distributing our annual e-newsletter and periodic announcements concerning upcoming ELT events, including those provided by partner ELT publishers and organisations.
- You may also receive requests to take part in surveys related to English language teaching.
- Other information provided by conference participants via registration is used for statistical, administrative purposes only in order to better serve the ELT community in Slovakia.

None of the information provided via the registration process will ever be sold or given to a third party for any reason.

CONFERENCE PHOTOGRAPHY and VIDEO

Attendance at ELTForum 2012 events in public spaces constitutes consent to be photographed and videotaped for use in print and/or electronic publicity. To ensure the privacy of participants, images will not be identified using full names or personal identifying information without written approval from the photographed subject.

OPTING OUT

Participants may opt out of mailings at any time by e-mailing info@eltforum.sk, subject line 'unsubscribe'.

Participants may request that their name and email address to be deleted entirely from ELTForum's database via the same e-mail address, subject line 'please delete'.

Participants may request the removal of their image (photograph or video) or tag from the ELTForum Facebook page or website using the same e-mail address, subject line 'remove image/tag'. Please include the link to the photo in question.

"I have read, understood, and agree to ELTForum's privacy policy."
